

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Flying Camel Airport Shuttle AUGUST 2017

The Flying Camel provides affordable shuttle transportation between campus and John F. Kennedy International Airport (JFK, New York), T. F. Green Airport (PVD, Rhode Island) and New London's train station around all major school breaks.

Shuttle rates for 2017 - 2018 are as follows:

John F. Kennedy International Airport: $60 (each way)
T. F. Green Airport: $30 (each way)
New London train station: $10 (each way)

To make a reservation, please use the online form located on the College website under transportation. Reservations must be made two weeks in advance or are subject to a late fee. Fees will be charged to the students Camel Cash account and any questions concerning Camel Cash should be directed to the Camel Card Office at camelcard@conncoll.edu or (860) 439-2250.

For all arrivals to campus from T. F. Green Airport, the Flying Camel will pick up at T. F. Green Airport at the time designated below and then make one brief stop at the New London train station before returning to campus. For all departures from campus to T. F. Green Airport, the Flying Camel will first stop at the New London train station and then continue on to T. F. Green Airport.

Arrival times listed are times at which the Flying Camel will depart from each airport. Departure times are times at which the Flying Camel will leave from campus for all airports. All Flying Camel shuttles pick up and drop off students on campus in front of the College Center at Crozier-Williams.

General questions regarding the Flying Camel Airport Shuttle service may be directed to transportation@conncoll.edu or 860-439-3700.

Flying Camel Airport Shuttle Schedule AUGUST 2017

Shuttle Departure from Airports (both JFK and PVD):

- Monday, August 21st 1 p.m., 6 p.m. (first year students only)
- Saturday, August 26th 1 p.m., 6 p.m. (returning students)